Sarah Cooper (nee Thoday)

Posted by: Stephen M Buck, 30/07/2015

Sarah was born on the 27th of September 1858 at Stanley Flat (near Clare) South Australia. Her parents, Henry & Maria (nee Cook) Thoday were amongst the original pioneers to South Australia when they arrived at Port Adelaide from the UK in 1851. Sarah married Shadrach Cooper in 1882 and together they had seven children, including a son Ivan Wilfred Cooper who was killed in action at Lone Pine Gallipoli in 1915. Sarah became ill in 1895 (when living at Kadina, SA) and went to the Royal Adelaide Hospital for surgery but unfortunately died there on the 3rd of December 1895 and was buried at West Terrace cemetery. Sarah is also remembered on her parents memorial at the Kadina Cemetery - please see attached photograph.
