Great Grand Mother.

This year was my grandfathers 10th year anniversary of when he lost his battle to cancer. being 9 when he passed, i didn't quite understand what had truly happened. so ten years later, i decide to go visit my great grand parents. (lucky for my their all laid in the same cemetery) Olive, my great grand mother passed away before my brother & i were born so we never knew her. All i know it's through photographs and stories my grandmother tells me. it is also quite interesting how much my great grand mother & i look alike. photo below is my grandfather (fredrick john) and both of my great grandmothers (olive maud & florcence holberton) on his wedding day
